CFO Resignation

Straker Group Ltd (ASX:STG) (“Straker” or the “Company”) advises that Mr David Ingram has resigned from his position as Chief Financial Officer of the Company. Mr Ingram’s last day of active service will be 10 July 2026, after which he will be on leave through to his employment cessation date of 26 September 2026.

The Company’s operations continue as normal with the Board taking a direct and hands on role on all financial matters in the interim. The Board has also commenced a search process for a permanent successor to support the Company through its next phase of growth. An announcement on a permanent CFO appointment is anticipated in the near future.

The Board wishes Mr Ingram well in his future endeavours.
